

GEORGE PARKHURST.

APRIL 13, 1860.—Ordered to be printed.

Mr. DUELL, from the Committee on Revolutionary Claims, made the following REPORT.

The Committee on Revolutionary Claims, to whom were referred the papers in the case of George Parkhurst, a private in the war of the revolution, ask leave to report :

That no petition accompanies the papers submitted ; but it appears that the said George Parkhurst served for the period of ten months and sixteen days as a private in the revolutionary war, and died in 1839, several years after the passage of the law of 1832, under which said Parkhurst was entitled to a pension. There being no proof before the committee, either by petition or otherwise, that said Parkhurst did not receive a pension during his lifetime, and there being no proof that said Parkhurst left heirs who would be entitled to apply for relief, therefore your committee ask leave to submit the following resolution :

Resolved, That the committee be discharged from the further consideration of this case.

GEORGE T. LARKIN

REPORT

Mr. Larkin, from the Committee on Revolutionary Claims, made the following report:

REPORT.

The Committee on Revolutionary Claims, to whom were referred the report of the Committee on Revolutionary Claims, a report in the name of the Committee, and also in report.

That no action was taken on the report submitted, but it appears that the said George T. Larkin served for the period of the month and a half as a private in the revolutionary war, and that in 1862, several years after the grant of the law of 1862, under which said Larkin was entitled to a pension. There being no proof before the committee in relation to either of these facts, the committee did not receive a pension during his lifetime, and there being no proof that said Larkin had never been entitled to such a pension, the committee will leave to submit the following resolution:

Resolved, That the committee be discharged from the further consideration of this case.
